

Greetings,

We are open to new submissions and new dates.

We'd like to request a change of information.

Tbilisi 4th International Internet Festival of Short Films "Diogenes 2023" starts accepting films for the main competition:

Note:

Films will be accepted from April 3, until October 15.

The films selected for the festival's main competition will be announced on November 15 and the festival will officially open on this day. Award ceremonial of the winning films will take place on November 22.

The participation fee is $5 only.

Selected films will be shown on the big screen in the second half of November.

There will be two groups of judges -

1. Main international jury

2. Student jury

The main international jury will select four winning films in the following categories: feature, animation, documentary, experimental, and musical.

Also, the same jury will award winners with diplomas in feature, animation, documentary, experimental, and musical categories.

The student jury of the festival will select winners and award them with prizes, named "Alaverdoba", "Serenade", "Sapovnela", and "Musicians" in the categories of fiction, animation, documentary, experimental, and musical.

Also, the same jury will award winners with diplomas in feature, animation, documentary, experimental, and musical categories.

Masterclasses will be held between November 13-21.

Terms of the contest:

1. The duration of the film should not exceed 15 minutes and 45 seconds.

2. The film should be made in 2022-2023.
3. Animated, artistic, documentary, experimental, and video art films are accepted.
4. No violence, no separatism, no intolerance, no revanchism, no war propaganda.
5. Free theme
6. Each participant can submit no more than 2 (two) films.
7. The film must be accompanied by English subtitles.
8. The organizers of the festival have the right to download the film submitted to the competition for the selection and full work of the jury.

This year's slogan of the festival is "The world is us!"

Register on the platform or fill out an application on our website - <https://diogenesfest.com> and upload a link to the movie.

The festival wishes success and progress to all those who wish to participate in the competition.
