

Dark Scream Film Festival Rules of Submission

1. Submission will be accepted through the film festival platform FilmFreeway.
2. We do not mind if your film has already been published online.
3. The film has to be in English or have English subtitles.
4. The submitter allows submitting only one film.
5. The film maximum has a 120-minute length, including intro and final credits.
6. All submissions are final. No refunds are provided.
7. Selected films will require HD format of the film on festival demand for screening purposes in the event through Dropbox or WeTransfer.
8. We don't Endorse any Human or Animal Cruelty. So be aware while submitting the film.
9. The submitter owns all the copyrights, including music rights. The violation of copyrights will lead to disqualify the film
10. We reserve full rights to use your name, film and film clips, posters, or any other information for publicity and display on our website, Facebook page, and all other promotional material (online and printed).
11. No refunds will be given whether your film is or isn't selected for the festival or screenings. Any hard copy of your film and promotional material will not be returned.
12. No inquiries or arguments will be entertained regarding non-selected films. The decision of the festival selection committee will be final.
13. By Submitting the Film submitter will agree with all the rules and regulations of the Dark Scream Film Festival.